JERRY YARNELL'S POLICY ON COPYING/SELLING FROM HIS INSTRUCTIONS

Can I sign my name to work I painted from an art book, video, or photograph of one of Jerry's paintings? Yes, but only if it is from his instructional materials and NOT one of his personal fine art Gallery pieces. Change painting significantly when 'selling' pieces.

Jerry requests that you please: (1) Sign your name to your art work, (2) Give credit on the back of your painting, (3) Change the 'name' of the painting from the title that Jerry has used when you are entering your art into a competition, show, or gallery.

BE AWARE: Jerry Yarnell is not affiliated with Company Yarnell Art or its website.
